Top 5 Q&A PROGRAMME DIRECTOR

Top 5 questions about the Master of Finance programme, answered by our Programme Director

Prof. Rujing Meng.

2 What are the benefits of choosing double concentration?

The main benefit of choosing double concentration is that it enriches student learning and training experiences by allowing them to focus on two areas of expertise and hence a wider choice in their career.

3 Would there be any practical skills linking back to the industry?

MFin programme is an interdisciplinary programme aiming to provide motivated individuals with not only cutting-edge training in financial theory, but also the necessary STEM+ training, allowing them to apply the knowledge in a multitude of financial disciplines: asset and wealth management, corporate finance, financial engineering, and risk management. Students apply the techniques and knowledge to analyse business cases and conduct group projects. The cutting-edge curriculum balances quantitative skills and visionary thinking, and is further enriched by alumni and student activities, mentorship programmes, student clubs and professional seminars.

4 How close is the course to the current financial world, in terms of the curriculum and training?

Our curriculum is closely tied to professional practices and adapts to the changes of the global financial markets. We are a University Affiliation Program of CFA Institute and have been added to the GARP Partnership for Risk Education. Guest lectures and professional seminars from practitioners have brought up-to-date market information to the curriculum. Training workshops on Bloomberg, WIND and Python programming are also available, to well equip students with the skill sets necessary to thrive in the workplace.

5 What will my future career path look like in the financial domain?

Our graduates will enjoy a competitive advantage in a wide range of career opportunities across commercial and investment banks, brokerage and investment firms, private equity and venture capital firms, insurance companies, treasury departments of non-financial corporations, regulatory agencies, and also consulting and accounting firms.

The Master of Finance programme at HKU Business School is designed to provide students with a rigorous and comprehensive training in finance. The programme covers a wide range of topics, including financial theory, financial markets, investments, risk management, and financial regulation. Also, the faculty members of the programme are renowned experts in their fields, with many of them having extensive experience in the finance industry. They bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the classroom, and are dedicated to providing students with a top-notch education.

I am truly grateful to HKU for offering me a wonderful experience during my pursuit of a master's degree. Through workshops and discussion with the professors and career service, I have known more about the career development in the financial industry in Hong Kong. I have a clear career direction now that best suits my strengths and interests, instead of blindly pursuing the heated positions that everyone wants.

Martin Szeto

Master of Finance
(Class of 2023)

Thank you for the wonderful experience at HKU. The Master of Finance programme equipped me with academic-literacy skills that I will carry with me throughout my career. I am grateful for the opportunities and enrichment activities that challenged me and prepared me for the real business world. Completing the programme is a significant achievement that demonstrates dedication, hard work, and knowledge in a specific field.

Furthermore, the programme provided a solid foundation in finance and equips them with analytical and problem-solving skills that are highly valued in the industry. The programme also offers networking opportunities and exposure to real-world challenges, making graduates well-prepared for their future careers.

Stian Andersen

Equities Trading Analyst,
Goldman Sachs (Class of 2022)

I enjoyed that many classes in the programme includes project and group work. This helped me to enhance my team working skills, meet new people and learn how students from different cultural and academic backgrounds approach tasks in a different way.

My favourite class was the Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management class taught by the programme director Dr. Meng. The trading challenge, where we managed a portfolio over several weeks, was one of the highlights of the course and gave students a hands-on experience in how to trade in the global financial markets.

I would say the programme can be described as highly focused on technical skills with a few practical insights.
